Honorable Marvin H. McIntyre
Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Marvin:

Late last evening, I received information from a confidential source which I thought you would want to make available immediately to Mrs. Roosevelt concerning a demonstration being planned to take place during a speech she is reportedly scheduled to make on the subject "For Propaganda" in the auditorium at the Bonnemaker Department Store, New York City, this afternoon.

According to the source of my information, the reliability of whom is not known but who holds a rather prominent position, she has purchased fifty tickets to the meeting for the use of persons who have been instructed and coached to heckle Mrs. Roosevelt during her talk. The informant advised that this information has been furnished to the New York City Police Department, but I thought you should know of it and that you might want to effect some arrangements to prevent any unpleasantness.

With assurances of my highest regards,

Sincerely yours,

information that the DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY SCHOOL was directly or indirectly controlled by the COMMUNIST PARTY. Informant stated that a was an affairs. Informant advised that the school was located at 46 Barrow Street,

The New York Times for September 30, 1945 set forth information to the effect that MRS. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT is scheduled to deliver two of fifteen lectures to be given at the adult work shop on inter-racial relations of the DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY SCHOOL. This announcement was made by MRS. ELLEN S. ROOSE, School Director. The story went on to relate that MRS. ROOSEVELT was to be the principal speaker at the dinner opening the work shop on inter-racial affairs at the Biltmore Hotel on October 2, 1945. Lecture dates and topics for MRS. ROOSEVELT were listed as being: "Housing and Community Planning - One Approach to Intercultural Relations" is scheduled for November 12th; and a lecture on November 26th on "Democratic Education." MRS. ROOSEVELT was also to participate in one or more of the discussion sessions.

These lectures on inter-racial affairs are to begin October 22 at 8:15 PM in the meeting room of the Church of St. Mark's in the Bowery, across the street from the DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY SCHOOL. These meetings are to continue every Monday until the middle of May. The series is to be opened by DR. BERNARD J. STEIN of Columbia University. Among the lecturers will be DR. MARGARET LEAD, associate curator of ethnology of the American Museum of Natural History. The story in the New York Times reported further that other speakers at the dinner would include: DR. STEPHEN S. WISE, DR. LEAD, DR. CHANNING H. TOETAS, and DR. J. RAYMOND WALSH.

The New York Times of October 3, 1945 reported that MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT had been the speaker at the dinner sponsored by the DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY SCHOOL at the Hotel Biltmore and was reported to have said with reference to Russia, "If we learn to trust them, perhaps they'll trust us." She attributed failures in this country to leaders who were not able to have confidence in the people here or peoples of different races and religions because of fear of them. Other speakers at the meeting included DR. CHANNING H. TOETAS, secretary for Negroes at the Young Men's Christian Association; DR. J. RAYMOND WALSH, radio commentator and research director for the Citizens Political Action Committee; and DR. MARGARET LEAD.

In the World Telegram of October 5, 1945, in her column, MRS. ROOSEVELT discussed the DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY SCHOOL. This writeup said that the school which started at the Greenwich House on Barrow Street had grown so rapidly that it was necessary to secure additional space, and that the school is now located in a building which was formerly a hospital. The following is quoted from her column:
The basic concept of the school is that it shall really be a community school. It proposes to take part in the life of the community and include all the elements of the community among its students, thereby helping them to live and work in the future in a community. The part I like best is the fact that they expect to work with the parents as well as with the children, and this seems to me to make a great deal of sense in any educational adventure.

From the New York Amsterdam News of August 11, 1945, information was obtained to the effect that IRISE ROOSEVELT will serve as a lecturer in the adult work shop on inter-racial relations of the DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY SCHOOL. The article states further that DR. MARGARET MEAD is Chairman of the school's inter-racial relations section which aims at eradicating group prejudices and tensions which delay the democratic way of life in this country. The article states that IRISE ROOSEVELT will serve without compensation and her lectures will be given to teachers, parents, and professionals interested in helping promote inter-racial understanding and friendship. Other lecturers were listed as being IRISE ROOSEVELT, MARILYN ROSEN and ROBERT L. COOPER, director of the Wittweck School for Boys. Information was set forth that the DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY SCHOOL was established in 1944 in rooms of the Greenwich House Music School with sixty children in four grades. For the 1945-46 school year, DR. MEAD indicated that 200 children would be accepted, 100 in the nursery group and 100 in the six grades.

Yet here is an issue which those well-meaning leading churchmen and laymen who are concerned with the immaculate preservation of our civil rights will not face. If they would raise it, they may very well discover some of the basic reasons for the spiritual disintegration of our society. Civil liberties cannot be maintained by standards which honor conspirators as equal citizens.

- Chinese Puzzle

How did it come to pass that in non-Communist China, whose people had long been schooled in regarding the United States as their greatest friend, American prestige has been rapidly declining and the legend of American “imperialism” has been growing among the common people and the intellectuals?

The answer to this question, which is all too easily explained by blaming Chinese Communist propaganda, is in reality to be sought in Washington and throughout the rest of this country. When those who make our policy in the Far East are themselves infected with the virus of Communist propaganda, as parroted by Wallace, that the United States is a war-mongering, imperialistic power; when our own spokesmen and officials transmit to China the Communist-slated comments of Americans and propound in China views in consonance with Moscow’s rather than America’s interests; is it any wonder that the Chinese are turning against America? But how do such things happen? It would take a powerful search-light to expose the origins of this puzzling phenomenon.

- Double Bookkeeping

How does it come to pass that Eleanor Roosevelt, who as the First Lady of the Land had univalled opportunities to get at the facts, dispenses different truths with either hand? In her daily column, in disparagement of the Wallace candidacy, she affirms that secret police are the earmarks of a Fascist or Communist state and that Communists the world over sow chaos to defeat democracy; in her monthly page in The Ladies’ Home Journal, she offers such pearls as that the Soviets are anxious for peace and are not preparing an attack against us now, and that they have brought “advantages to them (the Russian people) in the past twenty-five years.”

And how does it happen that a trustworthy reporter such as C.L.O. Sulzberger of The New York Times, in reviewing Robert St. John’s “efficient propaganda job” The Silent People Speak, also carries water on both shoulders? After describing St. John as a “subconscious follower of the party line,” after exposing the untruths, the errors and the per- versions of St. John’s account of life in Tibet, Mr. Sulzberger properly as- sesses in The New York Times Book Review that the author’s “greatest distortion is moral,” and is “just as phony in its bias as that of a truly Fascist observer.” And yet he ends on a note recommending the book as “of immense interest . . . to anyone.”

These are but a very few specimens from a monthly sheaf of questions of world-wide range and variety. How did we come to such a pass? Is it merely an accident that the lie has been en- throned, that the double standard has become an accepted norm of public opinion, and that conspiracy has its place in the political life of a free people?

Dear Senator Woodley McElroy,

Your testimony appears on the front cover of its address, my name, page 65.

Any well-informed person knows Benedict Arnold received $10,000 for betraying this country. They also knew the most deliberate fraud was not going to Art. 3 Sec. 3 of our Constitution. It is vitally important for the Constitution to maintain the integrity of an oath and one found as useless of the taxpayer to do.

Hope to the Military Affairs Committee of the Senate whose solemn duty it is to remove from office. And, to the Council of State Government, Dept. of Justice et al. It may be their duty to have you apprehended for incitement of treason.

One of the greatest sayings of Jesus was: "Ye cannot serve two masters." Violate of the oath to support the Constitution is disloyalty to the flag of the most dangerous, because it is the disloyalty of those who has sought and accepted a trust.

Flag and Constitution have traveled side by side. They will stay up or go down together. Because they are an unscathed faithed servant — me, of course.

Desirably yours,

THE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Rep. John S. Wood:

There is no such thing as free speech as the term "free speech" is so glibly and misunderstandingly applied. Free speech is restricted to citizens who live within the Constitution.

One of the most deceptive statements of Communists and their fellow travellers - public officials and college professors with high-sounding names is: "I believe in DEMOCRACY - a democratic form of government." Democracy is according to OFFICIAL definitions and, as the term implies, the very essence of Communism and wherever tried has resulted in dictatorship. Joseph Stalin and his henchmen used the word "DEMOCRACIE" to foist his dictatorship on the Russians. The fact that democracy, the rule of the mob, won't work is as old as civilization itself. The remark of James Madison, frail little Father of the Constitution, that: "Democracy is the bait of schemers and crooked politicians" fits our biggest padders of democracy about as neatly as a glove. I would have you read Madison on "Democracy" and "Republicanism" in No. X in FEDERALIST (most book and dept. stores).

"We are a democratic people in contradistinction to aristocracy. Our government was founded as a REPUBLIC so as to be, on the one side, opposed to democracy; on the other to Monarchy." - Principles of Constitutional Law, Thomas M. Cooley. "The United States shall GUARANTEE to every State in this Union a REPUBLICAN form of government;..." - From our Constitution (Art. IV, Sec. 4). "The Constitution, not only promises that the Union will interpose with all its might...if internal or external causes threaten to overthrow their REPUBLICAN form of government, but it absolutely forbids them (people) to adopt any other form under any condition or for any reason whatsoever." - Constitutional Law of the U.S.A., Dr. H. Von Halst.

Citizens who un-Americanize themselves to the extent of talking collectivism, communism, democracy, fascism, nazism, liberalism, socialism, or a new world order - "Union Now" forfeit all Constitutional rights. And, according to our Constitution and Laws, it becomes the solemn duty of the good citizens of this REPUBLIC to have them imprisoned or executed.

Is it true, as Fenton Walker relates, the Administration has 200 million dollars earmarked to be spent in close areas? In other words, does the Roosevelt-Truman CIC-PAC coalition mean to plunge the American taxpayers' 200 million dollars deeper in debt in order to deny the American people their right to free elections, and to keep themselves in office? And, if so:

"Our fathers asserted what we are accustomed to call the right of Revolution. One great end of government is protection - to secure men in their lives, liberty, property, happiness and home. But if government, instead of recognizing the rights of men, denies these rights; if, instead of protecting these rights, it violates them, it is no longer a righteous government and has no right to demand obedience and subjection. It may have power to rule, but it has no right to rule. Government ceases to be an object of obedience when it becomes an instrument of oppression,...Administrations are often turned from an unjust course by an unsuccessful revolution.... This is what Jefferson had in mind when he said some resistance and [illegible] necessary occasions to keep Administrations in order... The faithful citizen, as against an unjust government will first seek all other means of self-preservation and defence." - The American Republic - James A. Woodburn. When the American people wake up, the life of our "schemers and crooked politicians" may not be worth much.

According to the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, what right have or had we to join any League of Nations, United Nations or World Court? According to the Monroe Doctrine and the Pledge of Allegiance what right had or have we to interfere in the internal concerns of any foreign power or to take the side of one nation against another nation?

Certain noisy and impudent minority groups show they hate this country and our Constituted representative republican form of government. They clamor for democracy or a homeland of their own. It is the right and it may be the duty of the Congress to give these groups opportunity to have what they desire. Let's put the matter to a vote of the people as to whether or not they should be colonized outside the United States as are the Igorrotos and the Japs. And, if so, then write into the Constitution, by amendment, to bar them and their descendants forever from our shores.

The duties of the President are, broadly speaking, to see that the provisions of our Constitution and laws are faithfully carried out -- not to try to cram his ideas of government down the neck of the American people or to try to tell their Congressmen and Senators what they "must" or must not do.

Moreover, the Executive, Judicial and Legislative branches of our Government are not co-equal. I beg you and those receiving copies of this letter to persuade every Congressman and Senator, to peruse FEDERALIST and study Article 1, Section 8, Clause 18 of our Constitution. They should then have intestinal fortitude sufficient to look any brass hat or other public official in the face and firmly tell him to keep his trap shut on matters pertaining to Congress - no matter what his position may be. What offense would it be against the Constitution to kick them in the teeth even now?

1000 copies including all Governors and standing Committees of Congress. Use of any of this material invited. Mailed as a public service. Best wishes.

Yours for Constitutional Government and 100% AMERICANISM.

An "old fashioned" Conservative

P.S. Added Jan. 15, 1946. PUT A STOP TO IT. I mean stop the U.S. Office of Education and others from teaching students "democracy" instead of Constitutional "Republicanism" as they are sworn and paid to do. Stop the miscalled Communists and Liberals - Sidney Hillman, Svin. A.J. Vandenberg and their cabal from talking democracy. When and why did mr. H.R. Frootins, Jr. say: "Our greatest trouble is we have had too much democracy."

Read the FEDERALIST. I say it soberly and after years of reflection. I know the men who will give the American people an understanding of the meaning of the Constitution will immortalize his name as the greatest benefactor. You who are reading this copy, try it, for once. This understanding will enable men everywhere to have a voice in their own government and the right to manage their own affairs guaranteed to themselves and their descendants. The ADMINISTRATION is not the GOVERNMENT - not yet. So long as the potent influence of George Washington remains alive in the hearts of the American people, the republic...
It is an undeniable fact about 1850's movement was begun in our schools and colleges and our dictionaries have been altered in order to enable johns and "American "Internationalists" and "Liberals" -- pretended Democrats or Republicans -- to nullify the Declaration of Independence and destroy our republican form of government under the guise of "democracy". "Rudy" Roosevelt was one of the President's men of 1872, (as was P.D.R.), and in his address, the first President traitorous enough to advocate and propose "democracy". Read the party platform of old, above all the startling Democratic Platforms of 1900, the political debates in Congress and elsewhere, it should then be your solemn duty to restore the accurate use of "Republican" terminology -- regardless of personal consequences. The United States never was a democracy; it is not now. We live in a republic, and the advocates of democracy have never attempted to practice democracy, and, even now, foolish democrats except in the knowledge that the people have never paused to examine its meaning.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, as I recollect his exact words, "Peace and democracy are the two most abused words in the English language today... Defeat our republican form of government and its liberties... The representative REPUBLIC erected on the American continent under the Constitution of the United States is a more advanced, a more just and a wiser form of government than the socialistic and direct democracy which is now proposed to substitute for it. To pervade the mouth of the people is under way in the United States at the present time, the definite and determined movement to change our representative REPUBLIC into a socialistic democracy... It presents itself in many persuasive and seductive forms, it uses attractive forms to which men like to give adherence, but if it is successful, it will bring to an end the form of government that was founded when our Constitution was made..."

From WHY SHOULD WE CHARGE OUR FORM OF GOVERNMENT. (1913)-- not since he has been using Teachers College to teach "democracy".

To send a copy of "Forty Years of Roosevelt", Send 50¢ to Carl Abate, 5448 Central Avenue, Indianapolis 5, Indiana: "Political Theorists and Theological Politicians." Ch. VI of the officially documented book: Woodrow Wilson's Biblical Revolution. (1859) by Col. Jennings C. Wise gives the names and relates how these pretended Democrats and Republicans directed Teft with "Rudy" and how they mean to destroy the two party system and substitute "Phillips" as administrator. The prophetic concluding speech of Abraham Lincoln, at Springfield, Jan. 30, 1863, titles "Preserving the Government," and that of Daniel Webster, in the House of Representatives, Dec. 9, 1816, titles: "Military Conscription is Despotism." How much gold remains at Fort Knox? Was half of P.D.R.'s face blown off?

GEORGE WASHINGTON: "The basis of our political system is the right of the people to make and alter their Constitution of government; but the Constitution which at any time exists, is changed by an explicit and authentic act of the whole people, is sacredly obligatory upon all." The Constitution guarantees to each of the States a republican form of government.

Article II of the Bill of Rights: "A well-regulated militia being necessary to a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed. Which means a man may bear all the arms he chooses at any time. And, when a Govern or informs a citizen that he is a member of the State Militia he is in and how. One good reason why the Constitution provides compulsory military conscription is to keep the Federal Government from usurping the rights of the States and therefore of the People. This Country, with its institutions belongs to the people who inhabit it." Before the President the Congress or the Supreme Court separately or combined, -- not yet.

CHARLES: "...in their own (the people's) keeping exclusively, and not in that of any party leaders or party demagogues, or political hacks, is the integrity of the Constitution. It is in the strong arms and hearty hands of the great masses, who are not members of Congress, nor holders of office... that resides the safety of the nation; and these masses, though slow to move, are irresistible, in the time and occasion for moving come.

To have a democracy, lawfully, we must have a bloody revolt. And I might be well for those who talk democracy and our International model... We are looking toward a new constitution as a means of restorations of the rights of the States and therefore of the People. In wartime TRAITORS are shot at sunrise. (More information if wanted)

Mrs. Roosevelt to Speak At Pierce Hall Meeting

Mrs. Roosevelt, President of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Red Cross, is scheduled to speak at a dinner meeting sponsored by the YWCA at Pierce Hall on February 28th. The proceeds from the dinner will be used to support the work of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Roosevelt, known for her tireless efforts on behalf of world peace and human rights, has been a prominent figure in many national and international organizations. Her speeches are often characterized by a combination of personal storytelling and political advocacy, making them both entertaining and thought-provoking.

The dinner, which is expected to be well-attended, will include a meal followed by Mrs. Roosevelt's address. Attendees are encouraged to purchase tickets in advance to ensure a seat for the event.

Additional information about the dinner and how to reserve your seat can be found on the YWCA's website or by contacting their office directly.
Mrs. Roosevelt Gets Accustomed To Lower Berths

From now on it has been the custom of the White House, in living in Jersey, that the President of the United States should have a berth on the lower deck of the boat. The President, as a matter of fact, is a little better off than Mr. Roosevelt because the President always has a berth in the stateroom. Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughters always have a berth on the lower deck. Mrs. Roosevelt and the children always have a berth on the lower deck. Mrs. Roosevelt and the children always have a berth on the lower deck.
Conservative Has a Very Valuable Place in Politics

BY ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, Wednesday—The other night I went to a meeting of a group that is attempting to form an organization of independents. It was supposed to be a group of Independent Democrats, but there were some Republicans present.

Their idea was to make these Independents active within their parties, if possible. If not, then they would get them working together so that they would wield some influence on the party machinery from the outside.

I was amused by a good young Republican, a student of Fordham University, who asked me what the attitude should be of someone who held what I called an anti-party line. He evidently believed that I did not think there was any place in the country for reactionaries or conservatives.

As a matter of fact, I doubt if there is much use in being a real reactionary. But I think there is a very valuable place to be filled by the honest conservative. He is the balance wheel for those who want to move too fast and he does make progressive or liberal-minded people examine their positions more carefully. For that reason, I think he plays an important role in political life.

As we did not have any meeting of the Human Rights Commission on Tuesday, I went to the United States mission office in the morning and talked for almost an hour with some students from Ohio State University, who are spending a few days in New York City which will include a visit to the United Nations at Lake Success.

After that, I had a talk with Clark Elvehjem of the United Nations Association. Plans are already being made for a United Nations Day and a United Nations Week, and, as far as possible, these plans will be coordinated. I hope it will be possible to obtain wide co-operation and bring before the citizens of our country the need for greater knowledge and understanding of the work of the U.N., which this early celebration should emphasize.

I was impressed with the strong belief held by both Attorney General Robert Jackson and FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover that the FBI work would be hampered by revealing the contents of their files. I have always been axious about it.

Therefore, the request to show them to a congressional committee seems foolish. One could help bring in new FBI agents and real safety to the FBI and not in congressional investigating committees.

I am sure that the death of Ambassador Aristide Briand in a plane accident in Canada was a terrible shock to his many friends, and it is a loss to the service in which he had been so valuable.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I spoke to Mr. W. A. Jones of your office via telephone about the following this afternoon:

For the past few months we have asked a prominent American in whom our readers are interested to ask a question to be answered by Mrs. Roosevelt on her question and answer page in McCall's—on any subject in which they are interested.

We would like to invite you to ask a question and hope that despite your very busy schedule you will feel that you can do so.

I attach two pages to illustrate the manner in which the questions are handled. Thanking you very much for your consideration, I am

UNCLOSURE ATTACHED
If you ask me

BY ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

Q Were you ever alarmed at the dangerous structural deterioration of the White House when you were living there?

I am afraid we were unaware of any danger. We did know, as we renovated the plumbing and the kitchen, that many of the pipes had deteriorated and we were lucky that nobody had typhoid. Every time a board had to be taken up we marveled at the intricacies of the pipes running under the old house. The maintenance men were extraordinary, we remarked, to be able to keep everything in order as they usually did. The structural troubles were never brought to our attention.

Q What did your secretary, Miss Mahone Thompson, do before she became associated with you?

Miss Thompson worked for the American Red Cross during and after World War I, and then came to work in the women's division of the Democratic State Committee when I first began to work there.

Q Why do the census people ask us about our incomes and what we do for a living? Do they give this information to the income-tax people?

I haven't the remotest idea, but I suppose there is some good reason. The information is all supposed to be kept confidential to help the government get a picture of the economic condition of the country and the people. I doubt if it would be necessary for the census-takers to give any information to the income-tax people, since we do that ourselves every year when we file our income-tax returns, and we do it in greater detail than is required by the census.

Q What can be done to get government action to give our food surpluses to the starving in China? What government department would handle this? Is Congressional action first necessary?

It is a very complicated thing that you are asking, because it requires action by a good many government departments. Food surpluses are in the hands of the Department of Agriculture, but the decision as to where they should be distributed would be in the hands of the State Department. I imagine, in conjunction with the United Nations. In addition, how these food surpluses are to be paid for would be a question to be decided by a number of departments. Then there would be the question of transportation, and the cost of that would come under another department. You would have to have the consent of Congress, as Congress would have to appropriate the money. The answer to this question is not as simple as it would appear to be.

Q For a long time I have had one dream that repeats itself over and over again. Does this ever happen to you?

No. I am afraid I dream very rarely. I am usually so tired when I go to bed that I go to sleep immediately, and if I have a dream I rarely recall it when I wake up.

Q Since the Post Office Department has cut down mail deliveries, won't this increase unemployment by many thousands? It seems to me that the saving made by this cut in service will be largely counteracted by unemployment insurance and relief measures that may become necessary.

I cannot answer your question because I am not familiar with the budgets of the post offices throughout the country, but I cannot believe that the Postmaster General would have ordered these cuts unless they were going to bring about real savings and not fictitious ones such as you suggest. With any kind of reorganization of the government there is bound to be a certain amount of unemployment, but I think it will be found that those who have a certain amount of training are better kept in the service, for in the long run they expedite the work.

Q Do you think anything of importance was accomplished by the Milwaukee, Wisconsin, "Red Day," when the American Legion sponsored a mock Soviet invasion?

Unfortunately two deaths were caused that I think, might have occurred under other circumstances, since both of them were heart patients. I doubt, however, if anyone learned anything about communism by this mock invasion which they could not have learned in other ways just as successfully.

Q I found in "If You Ask Me" that you said Mr. Roosevelt was fit as a fiddle since removed. Will you please explain how that could be said of the same generation?

My husband and I were not of the same generation. My husband was one generation older than I was. My father and my husband were of the same generation.
The acting mayor of New York asks

Q: What in your opinion would be the most serious problems if New York City should suffer an atom-bomb attack?

I do not think I know enough to answer this question, but, judging from what happened in Japan, I would think the organization of medical relief, fire fighting, and the discovery and use of anything which would reduce radioactivity would be the most urgent problems. After that would come the provision of food and shelter and the removal of people as far as possible from the radioactive areas.

Q: I can’t help wondering how the children of prominent and/or royal families are helped to assume the posture and grace amongst other things, which by their very birth is deemed a requisite.

They undergo very serious training. They are usually taught a great many of the physical things which lead to grace and good posture. They have much mental training. They not only go to school but at the same time have rather intensive tutoring in many subjects. They are also taught several languages, and if they have any taste for music it is developed. They are trained from early childhood in good manners and the social form of the circle in which they move. Royal children learn a sense of responsibility and to watch and understand certain things that affect their people. For instance, during the war I was taken by the king and queen of England over the whole bombed area in London where the workers had lived. They noticed the conditions and understood the hardships.
If you ask me

BY ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

I have heard, from what I think to be a reliable source, that your son John is a Republican—at least he is not a New Dealer. Is this correct?

My son John is one of the members of our family who has no interest whatever in politics. His interests lie entirely in business. Jokingly he has said to us that he is a Republican, but whether he has ever voted the Republican ticket I do not know, for one’s political beliefs, like one’s religious beliefs, should not be questioned. He knows that I am a Democrat and believe in the Democratic party and why. If he should feel differently I would respect his feelings and not try to make him state his beliefs unless he volunteered the information. He certainly never opposed his father, so he must have accepted the New Deal, at least at that time. During the war I do not suppose any of my sons were able to vote regularly.

I notice, however, that in spite of his declared indifference to politics John has taken considerable interest in his brother James’s campaign for the nomination for Governor of California and has frequently been able to give me the latest news as brought to him by some people in his organization, so he is at least interested in one Democrat!

Was Amelia Earhart on an official mission when her plane was lost in the Pacific?

As far as I know she was not on an official mission but undertook the flight on her own initiative, as her husband was interested in having her make a record which would have been here had she flown successfully around the world. When her plane was missing United States ships joined in the search, but I never heard that she was on an official mission.

I have terrible attacks of stage fright every time I have to make a speech or preside over a meeting. Can you suggest any way to cope with this?

Stage fright is something you can overcome by constant practice. One good way to help yourself through the first crucial moments is to write out the beginning and the end of your speech or statement, perhaps only a paragraph. Then you know you have something before you to hold on to if you are frightened so much you are at a loss as to how to begin and then become wound up and do not know how to stop! If you try this method of writing out the beginning and end and carefully thinking out the points you wish to make during your speech—or, if you preside over a meeting, the particular points you want the meeting to keep in mind so that the objective of the meeting is always in sight—I think you will find your stage fright will grow less and you will be able to preside or make your speech without too much difficulty.

I am seventeen years old and have just finished high school. My mother insist that I go on to college, but I would rather take a job on the newspaper at home. Mother says I will always regret missing college, but it seems to me the women I admire most in public life never went to college. Don’t you think the world is better trained for a newspaperwoman than the classroom?

I am afraid I do not agree with you. There are certain kinds of knowledge acquired in the classroom—history, grammar, a knowledge of literature—which, if you want to be a really good newspaperwoman, will be invaluable to your career.

My husband always complained bitterly that even some of the best newspaperwomen lacked sufficient knowledge of certain countries when he visited them and that he was constantly briefing them on trips to give them more background which would make their stories more interesting and understandable.

I know it is hard, when you want to take a job to stick to the kind of work college means when you are not going to college just to enjoy yourself. But if you are serious in making newspaper work your career, you had better get as good a background and training as you possibly can.

Q How do you keep your feet from ach- ing and your face from getting para- tonic when you greet a great many people in one day?

I don't. Ever since the Washington days when I stood so much, the bones in my feet have suffered, and now they often ache—and, of course, one's face gets an almost frozen smile after a certain length of time.

I remember that on one occasion after I had shaken hands with several hundred people I walked into the dining room, where my guests were having tea, and saw two old friends. I said, "Where did you come from?" They told me they had just shaken hands with me as they passed in the receiving line. I was so sorry that the faces had merged and looked like one great blur.

It is much easier to stand and shake hands when you are doing it regularly and often. At the beginning of the autumn in Washing- ton I used to find it painful—my back ached, my feet ached—but after a few times all those who disappeared. I gradually got so I did not mind it at all, and I was well repaid by the interest of the people who came.

My dear Mr. Hoover:

Will you be gracious enough to send us a letter of tribute for inclusion in the Golden Book of World Tributes which will be presented to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt?

The presentation will be made on June 1, 1949 at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City, at the reception which will mark the publication in McCall's Magazine of Mrs. Roosevelt's new memoirs.

Entitled "This I Remember", the memoir will appear in McCall's in seven installments beginning with the June issue.

Mrs. Roosevelt's story spans the years from 1924 to that day in 1945, when Mrs. Roosevelt closed the door of the White House, following her husband's death and Harry S. Truman's assumption of the President of the United States.

We believe that these memoirs are a great contribution to an understanding of the 20th century, and that their publication is an auspicious occasion for letting Mrs. Roosevelt know, through this Golden Book of World Tributes, the high esteem in which she is held by leaders of mankind like yourself.

Because of the shortness of time, may we have your message of tribute to Mrs. Roosevelt by May 20th for inclusion in this Golden Book?

Thank you for any courtesy you may show in this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Otis L. Wiese

EX-43
December 15, 1943

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of November 22, 1943 in the above entitled matter in which you request that we obtain the original letter and forward three photostatic copies of same to the Bureau without further delay.

Upon contacting Mr. Bauman, Agent in Charge of the Secret Service, New York City, he advised that he recalled reference of this matter to this office, but stated that his office did not presently have the original of the letter in their possession. He mentioned that the original was turned over to Detective of the Alien Squad, New York City Police Dept.

After contact was had with of the New York City Police Dept., Detective appeared at the New York office, at which time he turned over to the office the anonymous letter referred to in this matter. He mentioned, however, that there was no reference actually made in the letter concerning Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, but that a possible threat to her was inferred at the time of its receipt due to the fact that she was to appear on one of their programs within a period of several days.

Detective mentioned that Miss Bessie Beatty, a commentator on this program, has received numerous anonymous letters concerning various threats to her person and reputation, but that she had made no report of same to the authorities, nor would she be willing to testify or furnish any information as to the identity of the writer of any of these letters, even were she sure of the identity of this individual.

In accordance with your request, I am enclosing herewith the original of this letter, together with three photostatic copies thereof, and it is requested that the original be returned to this office when it has served its purpose as I am desirous of returning same to the New York City Police Dept.

Very truly yours,

E. E. Curley

To day you are worrying about your taxi cab worrying about getting up early for your new program. Yes you'll say I give teas, etc. I know your gab. Don't we all help in our own way. You are doing for the Goddam English. Wouldn't it be nice if a day ever comes when the Dam Limays fight their own troubles. What do you say. Why don't you walk these few blocks to a subway or trolley to your broadcasting station instead of riding. You'll say the taxi driver needs money. Let him work in the defense plants that you are boasting about. You only have two hands and you think you can reach more people that trips - none of us have more than two hands but we labor. You stink.

When your English friends go on the air you give them all the time they want, but not so with any American.

Who do you think you are to judge who are and who aren't Good Working People. Your jealousy sticks out of you through every line of yours.

The next time you decide to use your expression Speaking for ourselves use it in a room by yourself in that way you won't show your goddam giggling, jack assy stupidity.

Your husband is sick how I heard you say but watch our for your sleep we are going to play you before long.

We'll quiet this shifty goddam ranting on the radio. I heard something about a party. THIS IS A WARNING, we also know your address home address. I am an American and going to protect it for my friends from you Dam English Bastards.

THE TRIAL AGAINST THE TWELVE COMMUNIST LEADERS

On November 1, while the American people were preparing to go to the polls, Federal Judge HOWARD R. MELINA, for the evident purpose of keeping constantly alive the "anti-Communist furore" with which the American reactionaries, imitating the Nazis, would want to reduce to silence the lovers of peace and democracy, refused to permit the passage of the present period of hysteria and permit the return of calm before instituting proceedings against the twelve leaders of the Communist Party.

He accepted the suggestion of the Prosecutor who for purely electoral reasons, protested the imminent "danger" that the twelve leaders would constitute to public order, and decreed that the trial would begin on November 15.

We would be guileless to think that the result of the elections - which in a certain sense constitutes an indication of the anti-reactionary mood of the American people - will induce the Justice Department to desist in this insane and mad plan to make this trial against the Communists a fascist bacchanalian revelry. It is up to the laborers to fight at the head of the people to prevent the reactionaries from depriving us through this trial, of our most elementary rights and submitting us to a police state.

It is time that every American worthy of the name understands that if the reactionaries are permitted to deny the Communists - who are not accused of having committed any act of force and violence against the government of the Republic - the right to assemble and support their own principles which, according to a judgment of the Supreme Court with regard to the SCHNEIDERMAN case, are not in any way anti-democratic, they will ultimately destroy the democratic system and march toward fascism.

The best representatives of the European peoples who know how many sorrows and hardships it has cost them for having permitted Mussolini and Hitler to attack and persecute the Communists, have hastened to warn us that if we do not stop the reactionaries while they are preparing for the WILLIAM FOSTER trial and that of his companions, it will be more difficult - much more difficult - to stop them when, encouraged by their success, they will attack anyone who dares to fight for a better future.

It is our duty to listen to their warning. We Italo-Americans who are a minority group, will be among the first to be crushed. Even now we can notice that the reactionaries are anxious to silence us together with all the other minority groups.

Fighting in defense of the twelve Communist leaders, we are fighting for our own interests. And so let us send our cries of protest toward the Justice Department, against any attempt to suppress with the Communist Party, every free thought, every desire for freedom and peace. Let us remind President Truman that, voting for him, the American people did not intend to authorize him to present us with fascism, but thought to vote against those agitating the "red menace" to install the terrorist regime of Wall Street which he himself denounced during his electoral campaign.

THE PENTAGON AGAINST ITALY

FORRESTAL Wants to Make Italy Into an "Assault Division" in the Service of American Imperialism

The Pentagon is a building of enormous proportions - in fact, it would suffice to say of... American proportions - which rises, horribly strange with its five ugly and impregnable sides, in the vicinity of the capital.

But it is not merely an architectural monstrosity. It is also a political incubus, being the general headquarters of JAMES FORRESTAL, one of the most faithful representatives of American financial oligarchy, who, as head of the Supreme Military Command of the nation, exercises extra-parliamentary powers never before equaled.

Protected from every Congressional criticism and interference, the Pentagon is "a state within a state" expanding continually and which would like to become a real "super-state" ready to subordinate every problem of American or international life to its so-called "defense program", which actually is no more than a diabolic plan for world conquest in the interests of the Wall Street birds of prey.

It Helps a Jasper to Copy Hitler

During the last few days, the Pentagon has taken a step which cannot help but arouse great fear in all those who love Italy, which emerged from a ruinous war barely three years ago.
demonstrated by Mrs. ELIANOR ROOSEVELT at the Paris of American Rights Conference now taking place in Paris.

Mrs. ROOSEVELT, United States Delegate to the Human Rights Commission is trying to make the United Nations accept a law which recognizes human rights universally.

And that is very praiseworthy.

But why aspire for these human rights in Europe and deny them at home?

For example, is not the right of refuge a human right?

Is not freedom of thought a human right?

Are not freedom of the press, of reunion, of association and speech all human rights?

The inviolability of the home is not a human right?

Well, dear Mrs. ROOSEVELT, today in America all these human rights are denied, violated.

What does the American delegate to the Paris Conference think of it?

Those who have already received the memorandum on the MICHELE SALERNO case are requested to turn it over to their friends and neighbors for their perusal. Visit your friends and bring them up-to-date on the fascist threat which weighs heavily on the entire American people through the political and government intrigues which intend to bring about the rebirth of fascism and suffocate civil liberties acquired at such a high cost by our forefathers.

It is also necessary to circulate the subscription blanks attached to the memorandum and remit contributions to the Defense Committee.

Companions, antifascist friends, do your duty: subscribe for the campaign against fascism.

Do not tire. Victory will be ours, it will be our victory.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Is there anything the F.B.I. can do about such horrible pamphlets as the enclosed?

Very sincerely yours,

Eleanor Roosevelt
Ten thousand American Negroes are now being trained and educated in Moscow as key men in what Stalin hopes will be a bloody Communist revolution in the U. S. A. These Negroes, through American Communists, are now establishing their contacts with every Negro community in the U. S. A.

Encouraged by the ignorant sentiment of foolish preachers, blind educators and political demagogues like Eleanor Roosevelt and Henry Wallace, these Negroes are cooperating with American political demagogues in an attempt to break down all social barriers between the black and white.

Among the many demands that they now make are the following:

1. They demand that all laws against intermarriage of black and white be repealed. It is the belief of the Communist that America will be easy to control if they can make of us a nation of mongrel mulattoes.

2. Through the leadership of political demagogues and Communists, they would force Negro children and Negro youth people in... to white schools and colleges, which is the short cut into intermixture of black and white blood.
3. They would repeal all Jim Crow laws and compel white women to crowd into trains and busses with the blacks, thus breaking down all commonsense barriers designed to protect both races from the wrong kind of mixture.

WOULD FORCE
MIXED SWIMMING

These pro-Stalin politicians who follow Henry Wallace and Eleanor Roosevelt have passed laws in certain states forbidding the erection of privately owned commercial swimming pools unless these swimming pools permit black and white to swim together.

PUBLIC TOILETS
TO BE REMOVED

In Washington, D. C., public toilets for Negroes have been destroyed and Negroes now invade the toilet facilities originally erected for whites only.
In view of the fact that nearly three-fourths of the Negro race is infected with venereal diseases, this fact alone makes such mixture of the races virtually criminal.

WHITE RACE
TO DISAPPEAR?

A prominent political braintrust recently said in Washington: "It is only a matter of time when there will be no white race. The intermixture of black and white in the U. S. A. will remove the white race."

POLITICIANS CATER TO NEGRO SLUM VOTE

Political hucksters in both old parties are willing to sell the white man down the river in order to line up the Negro vote in the slums of the big cities in the North. It is only a matter of a few months until it is likely to be declared un-Constittutional and unlawful to send a child to a school for whites only, or a young man and a young woman to a college for whites only.

PRESIDENT
HARRY TRUMAN

has allowed himself to give his O. K. to a so-called civil rights program which, in fact, was originally outlined by a conference of Negro Communists held in Detroit, Michigan. President
Truman was mislead by a group of Northern politicians into believing that this program of social intermixture of black and white was smart politics.

This is no longer a political issue. It is a question of whether or not the white race is going to commit treason against itself and its America.

If the white people do not awaken and start voting for public officials who believe honestly and fearlessly in white supremacy, it is only a matter of time until the Negro vote in the South and the Southwest will be powerful enough to subdue and belittle and destroy the leadership of the white man.

We who believe in protecting the white man’s interest do not hate the Negro and would not rob him of any rights guaranteed under the Constitution, but we are going to fight to the bitter end any attempt on the part of Washington politicians to force the following upon us:

IN OTHER WORDS
WE FIGHT...

1. The P. E. P. O.—a law now being advocated by the leaders of both old parties in the North to force a white man to hire Negroes, whether he wants them or not. Such a law is already on the statutes of New York State which makes it a criminal offense, punishable by fine or imprisonment, to ask any would-be employee his race, religion or color. It is even a criminal offense to ask how long he has been in the U. S., and whether he came from a foreign country. This is a trick law to force people to hire Negroes and Jewish refugees. The same political forces are trying to get the same kind of a law to apply to the whole Nation. To illustrate: If this law were to pass and a businessman in Oklahoma or Ohio, or any other state, called an employment agency for help and said, “I want five white girls to work in my office,” he could be fined or imprisoned or both for saying “white.” Or if he should say, “I want five Christian girls to work in my office,” he could be fined or imprisoned or both for saying “Christian,” on the grounds that this would offend the Jews.

2. Intermarriage. These revolutionists in our midst are anxious to create situations where it will make it easy for the weaker elements in both races to intermarry. Many states have statutes against this, but a Federal law is being advocated which would outlaw all at-

The above is a map of the proposed Negro Commonwealth State to be carved out of the South.
10 Million White People to be Driven From Their Homes to Make Room for Black Communist Soviet

American Negro Communists Now Being Trained In Moscow To Run Black Area. Thus Driving Out Whites And Enslaving Their Own Fellow Negroes

On the two preceding pages is an exact copy of a map taken out of the secret files of the Communist Party. The blacked-in area represents what the Communists hope some day (if they can promote a bloody revolution) will be the Negro Communist Soviet. It represents 132,000 square miles. About 10 million white people will have to be driven out of their homes. Among the leading cities that will be turned over completely to the Negroes will be Charleston, Atlanta, Shreveport, New Orleans, Savannah, as well as many others. The land which now belongs to the whites will be confiscated and turned over to the Red bureaucrats for control.

This plan was advocated within the past year by the Communist Negro member of the New York City Council, Benjamin J. Davis, Jr. Shortly before the war this plan was discussed in detail by Josef Stalin in an address before Lenin University where 2,000 American Communists are being trained now to run the United States. As late as February 10, 1947, a copy of a textbook, now being used in the Russian Army, was exhibited before the Congressional Committee for the Investigation of Un-American Activities. The title of the military textbook is How to Bomb and Sabotage the U.S.A.

It is to be observed that a border zone has been left adjacent to the blacked-in area. This border zone is to be populated by both black and white. Of course, all segregation will be outlawed and the white people as well as the blacks in this border zone will be under black rule.

The revolutionary conspirators believe that the moment we have a period of unemployment, a general strike can be called, thus paralyzing telephone lines, railroads, electric systems, and major factories. Trained revolutionists will immediately take over leadership and seize control. The red flag now dominates most of Asia and most of Europe. THIS MODEL WAS PUBLISHED AND EXHIBITED BY COMMUNIST LEADERS AS LATE AS JANUARY 1947.

3. Black and white mixture in schools. Strange enough, our colleges are so full of Communists, pinkos and pro-Russian propagandists that an alarming number of our public school teachers and college professors actually favor the mixture of black and white children and young people in schools. We white people must fight this to the death. To illustrate: Students of physiology know that a Negro boy comes into puberty much earlier than a white boy; and sex relationships on the part of Negro boys at the age of 10 is not uncommon. White people must not permit these blacks to be turned loose on our little school girls.

4. Black bureaucrats. The same politicians in both old parties who are attempting to commit the above atrocities against the white race think it is cute polities to appoint black bureaucrats to high office to have rule over us and to be put into positions of political authority. White men must oppose these cheap practices.

5. Black rule in Southern States. In the Southern states the Negroes equal and outnumber the whites in many communities. The Communist Party has a plot to make of these Southern states a Black Republic, ruled by Negroes now being trained in Moscow. Truman's Communist-originated civil rights program is a scheme to destroy the authority of a state over its own affairs. It is expected even in this session of Congress that with the help of Eleanor Roosevelt Democrats, Northern Republicans and Communists that a law will be passed through Congress taking states rights away from these Southern states. Should this happen the black will overrun the whites in an arrogant and in a bloody bulldozing manner unequalled since Reconstruction days. Then if the whites resist, the U.S. Army will be sent into the South to enforce this black rule. This is just what Stalin, Henry Wallace and Eleanor Roosevelt desire. It must never, never be.

6. Mixture in Transportation. The average railroad coach and bus is filthy enough under present circumstances without mixing the blacks with the whites. Large numbers of these blacks reek with syphilis and gonorrhea. This circumstance just does not permit the crowded intermixture with white people, especially in communities where the Negro population is large. Jim Crow must remain. It is a realistic program of transportation based on experience. It is bad enough for our daughters and wives to be crowded and pushed around and squeezed on busses and trains by the occasional white moron without them being subjected to this offensive physical contact by black men.

ATTENTION: NEGROES

Christian white people do not hate Negroes. They merely want these Negroes to keep themselves in their place. That does not necessarily mean an unequal place. The Negroes should have good homes, good schools, good colleges, good churches, good clothes and decent facilities. White people who believe in social separation, if the Negro only knew it, are the Negro's best friend. The agitation for intermixture being led by the Communists, Eleanor Roosevelt, Henry Wallace and others, is creating a bad feeling among the white people, and it is piling up a backlog of ill will which would not exist if the white man were not afraid that this intermixture was going to be forced upon him by demagogues, political fakers and the actual makers of law. A few intelligent Negro leaders recognize the truth of this, but they have lost the political leadership of the Negro race, and the Negroes are following after the Henry Wallace, the Eleanor Roosevelts and the leaders of the Communist Party. White people with any common sense are going to resist this plot against their welfare.
ATTENTION:
PUBLIC OFFICIALS

The white people of America, who really love America, insist that you quit catering to the black man in order to line up his minority vote and begin to look to the great white majority which now faces loss of its identity, leadership and authority. This is a white man's civilization, and once the white man loses his authority this civilization goes down.

ATTENTION:
CAN IT TES

Those responsible for the circulation of this tract propose to interview candidates everywhere for public office to find out where you stand on this issue. We will not put up with double-talk or tricky words. You will be asked to come right out and say whether you are for inter-marriage of black and white, how you stand on this P.E.P.C. program, and where you stand on the attempt to force unnecessary intermixture of black and white in our school systems. If you answer these questions evasively or in a way designed to deceive the people, we shall publicize you as the Negro's candidate and we shall circulate your community with the information designed to brand you as such. We are not concerned whether you are a Democrat, Republican or an Independent. Men who are right on this issue are in both parties and men who are wrong on this issue are in both parties.

This tract was written by a Christian who still believes it is good Christianity and good Americanism to keep the black race black and white race white.

The author of this tract knows that certain sentimental preachers and shortsighted politicians will condemn this truth, but the great rank and file of common people in agreement with it.

FROM: Mr. A. H. Belmont

SUBJECT: DREW PEARSON RADIO BROADCAST
         STATION WTOP

DATE: January 14, 1957

I - Mr. Nichols
1 - Mr. Boardman

1 - Mr. Baumgardner
I - Mr. D. E. Callahan
2 - Mr. Morley
1 - Mr. Kleinkauf

The above broadcast included the following items of possible interest:

ITEM: "Washington. Senator McCarthy is trying to start a Presidential boom for J. Edgar Hoover."

COMMENT: None.

ITEM: "Chicago. A very cleverly worded news release is being mailed from Chicago all over the country bearing the names of Chief Justice Warren and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Congressman Adam Clayton Powell to raise money for a mythical Lizzie Stover College Fund. If it is handed to you, remember it is a fake and the allegations in it against President Eisenhower and his mother are completely spurious."

COMMENT: The Bureau is aware of the above information. Copies of the letter have been furnished to Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams and to Chief Justice Warren. Chief Justice Warren advised that he never heard of the Fund, knew nothing about it and gave no authorization for his name to be used.

ITEM: "New York. Mrs. Roosevelt’s column has been ordered banned from practically Scripps-Howard newspapers. While the column is syndicated by United Features, which is owned by Scripps-Howard, Republican executives at the head of Scripps-Howard sent out a flat order that because of Mrs. Roosevelt’s political views, her column was not to be published in Scripps-Howard papers. One or two Scripps-Howard papers notably the "Washington News," are ignoring the directive but the others are banning the former first lady of the land."

COMMENT: None. RECORDED-92

58 JAN 94 1957
NEW YORK--MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT ANNOUNCED THAT SHE WAS "INDENTI ANCED" HER PROPOSED TRIP TO RUSSIA BECAUSE SOVIET OFFICIALS REFUSED
O GRANT A VISA TO A LOOK MAGAZINE WRITER WHO WAS TO ACCOMPANY HER.
MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID SHE FELT THAT SOVIET OFFICIALS WERE "TRYING TO ORCE ME TO GO TO RUSSIA ON THEIR TERMS."
SHE SAID SHE AND LOOK'S EDITORS WERE CONVINCED THAT THE RUSSIANS OULD ALSO INSIST ON EVERYTHING BEING ON THEIR TERMS AFTER I GOT HERE" AND THAT IT WOULD BE "VERY FOOLISH" FOR HER TO MAKE THE TRIP THAT BASIS.
7/1--GE1046A
MRS. ROOSEVELT, NEW YORK

Mrs. Roosevelt had been scheduled to leave New York by plane today to stay in Russia until July 30. Gathering material for a series of articles for the magazine, the trip was cancelled after Russia refused to grant visas to other William Attwood or Whitman Masson, Look writers. The magazine had submitted both names to Soviet officials, but only one would have been the trip.

"In one month," Mrs. Roosevelt said, "it would have been impossible for me to do an adequate reporting job on a country as complex as Russia without the assistance of a trained magazine journalist or of a man who could speak and read the Russian language well enough to help me around and keep me from being at the complete mercy of an interpreter. I was anxious to observe carefully and report honestly on what I saw and heard.

Mrs. Roosevelt said that despite repeated requests the Soviet Union failed to provide a visa either for Attwood, European editor of Look, or Masson, a free-lance writer with a knowledge of the Russian language.

Mrs. Roosevelt said: "I feel that the Soviet officials, in not giving me a visa for a reporter to accompany me, are trying to cease me to go to Russia on their terms, and are, in a minor way, acting the same way they tried to treat our government and our allies at Geneva, as a matter of principle. I do not think Look or I could allow ourselves to be a party to such methods."

Mrs. Roosevelt added, however, that she did not believe she should "too indignantly" as the United States does not always immediately grant visas, but she said, "I think perhaps they mistrust me.

Mrs. Roosevelt said it would not be possible for her to go to Russia because of previous commitments.

"DON'T KILL AMERICANS BY CARELESS TALK.
NEVER DISCUSS MILITARY OR NAVAL INFORMATION
IN A PUBLIC VEHICLE. DON'T TALK!

Anyone who has ridden in Washington taxicabs has seen this sticker passed to the back of the driver's seat. But practically everyone knows that this "DON'T TALK" rule applies in practice only to the back seat. For Washington cabdrivers are the most talkative conversationalists in the U. S. From the time a visitor to Washington is jammed into a five-passenger cab with six other people, until the time he reaches his destination, he gets a fluent dissertation on politics and the war, bureaucrats and Negroes, military strategy and the cabby's domestic troubles.

Although each cabby has his own opinions, many of them are extraordinarily well informed on the most recent manipulations of Capitol Hill. Most of the cabbies' political information and rumors comes from talkative pairs of politicians, but a lot of it comes from separate Congressmen and Senators on their way home from the Hill.
After a particularly stormy session on the floor of the House, a Congressman is only too glad to pour his post-mortems into the willing ears of a cabdriver.

Cabbies like to talk about military strategy too, and some of them have radical proposals to help win the war. Said one the other day:
"Those U-Boats sure are a menace. You know, I've had an idea for beating those U-Boats. Americans have put across some pretty big manning projects, TVA, and all that stuff. Why don't the Atletic Ocean, wouldn't that be any more subs. Hell, we could drive all the stuff over in trucks. It'd be fun!"

Few cabbies have such fantastic proposals. But most of them lay claim to having had a "job" (passengers are always called "jobs") who was a general or an admiral and who gave them the low-down on the best strategic move in any given situation. Any day Washington is crammed with talkative generals and admirals who have any number of unorthodox plans for the attack on Europe. Send thousands of transport planes into Germany one night, and land a whole army in Berlin by parachute. Or, send WPA crews onto the Con-inent in the first assault wave on the theory that, for one reason or another, Nazi soldiers wouldn't drive them back in the sea.

The cabbies also like to talk about the bureaucrats, and some of them have their own names for the various alphabetical agencies.
OPA means "Office of Peddling Around." WFB stands for "Why Production is Bad." And the ODT, which legislates wartime use of taxicabs as well as buses and trucks, has been affectionately dubbed "Office for Discovering Taxicabs." To the cabbies the name "beothermen" has become a form of insult. Any time a passenger pays no attention to a light and crosses in front of traffic, he is a "damned bureaucrat!"

I don't want to show up in 'My Day'

The cabbies have definite likes and dislikes. Most of them like beer and baseball, short hauls and funny papers, dislike cops and pedes-trains. Negroes and Eleanor Roosevelt. A lot of them are Southerners who don't have any sympathy with the Administration's attitude on the Negro question. One cabby let out a yell one day when a Negro driver cut in front of him at a crossing, and added: "I'd have got out and hit him. I'd have showed all over him, but I don't want to get in trouble.

But most of all, the cabbies like to talk about business. Business these days is good, better than anyone can remember. Washington is bustling up a large part of the cabbies', and there are enough of them alone to keep all of Washington's 2,000-cab business well for the cabby's for the last year have been living the life of Riley. Cabbies in Washington have a freedom they would have in few other cities.
Most of them have their own cars. A lot of them have made enough money to buy even more cars and have formed their own taxi companies under the "C&T Cab Company."
association, the Co. of Haylen Cab Association, Dip-
association, the Co. of Haylen Cab Association, Dip-

For the first time in a longer period than they can remember, the cabbies have their customers where they want them. No longer can anyone get a cab by the time-honored Washington method of calling the cab company. There's plenty of business cruising, and nothing has been done to stop cruising yet. The cabby knows that after a customer has stood in the heat for half an hour, he isn't going to complain about how he is taken to his destination. Washington cabs have no meters, and fares are computed by zones in the city. And the hacky cabbies always have an answer for the guy who takes the longest possible ride within one zone, pays his twenty cents and asks if that is correct. "It's correct, but it ain't right, Mac."

Although Washington cabbies are their own bosses, there is always the Public Utilities Commission. The PUC registers every cab, can set whatever rules it wants, and the cab drivers have to follow them or lose their licenses. Cabbies claim that the PUC has a lot of plain-clothes men lurking around the city, hopping into cabs all the time, trying to get a cab to break the rules. One of the latest rules is that a Washington cab is a common carrier, and PUC sleuths are supposed to take a cab to see if the driver will go by someone who is trying to get a ride in the same direction. This rule, logical as it sounds, makes a lot of cabbies mad. They like to make their own choices of "jobs" and don't like to be told where they are going to go or have to choose, but arbitrary selection like this makes too many Washingtonians angry, so the rule sticks. One of the drivers has his own particular aversion to the rule: "Common carrier, Jose, you'd think we all had athlete's foot or something."

The most complicated fare system in the world

The cabbies get a lot of public criticism and some attacks in the local press. Awhile ago when it was felt that they were making a little too much of a good thing, they were filling their cars and charging every passenger full fare unless he was one of a party going from the same place to the same destination. So PUC stepped in and changed the rates. To replace the simple but valuable former rates, PUC came out with the most complicated fare system the U.S. has ever known, complete with intricate charts.

Fares are computed by zones, as before, but a cabby is supposed to pick up anyone flagging him, going to the same general direction. Whether the passenger is in one party or not, they have to pay the group-ride fares. The new system opened up a whole new field of conversation which runs something like this:

"Ain't it just like them long-haired bureaucrats to dream up a system like that? Why, anybody can understand the old one—plain and simple. You picked up a job at a place. You took it to a place. You charged him and he paid. If there was another guy they both paid the same fare. Sure, they squawked. They squawked and squawked. But they was too busy for those cabbies. They done anything to do, so they figured out something nice and complicated. Now I pick up a job down near the White House. So I go up Connecticut Avenue with him. A guy flags me. I gotta stop and pick him up. A little later, out near the Wardman Park Hotel, another guy flags me. So I gotta pick him up too. The law says I gotta. So I go on down the line, pick up the guy, down to the zone 4, and he's gonna cost me in zone 5. Before, it'd been easy to know what it was. But now he's charged the ride with the rule in it. It's a long way back to the White House. At least it used to be. Then the new fare map. You see, there's the third zone, where in zone 3, 4, and 5, you have to pay the zone 6. And I gotta figure his fare first up, but it's absolutely impossible. Meanwhile the poor bastard's trying to get one of the cab. He don't get in to stay all night, and he can't get paid until the hell out. He ends up with either his back on the ground or his head popped. And I got the same ride to go through with the next two guys. The old system, I knew just how much a job overall, time, they all argued about it, and I argued right back at 'em. But this here's more weeks of this, and I'll start thinking like my mother here. Jose, I'd much rather argue."

57 Jul 21 1947
The Negro press continued to give wide publicity to the Negro Freedom Rally to be held in Madison Square Garden, New York City on June 15th. Harlem is preparing to stage a mammoth protest parade that will have its climax at a massive demonstration against Lynching in the Garden. A full day of activities is planned by the Freedom Rally, the Citizens Against Lynching and the National Negro Committee to urge passage of the Federal anti-Lynching Bill now before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Spearheading the Nation Drive for a federal law, the Citizens Committee headed by the Rev. Elmore Robinson and Dr. W. D. Howard has requested Mayor William O'Dwyer to set aside the day as Anti-Lynching Day and by proclamation urge all New Yorkers to make known to government officials their opposition to Lynching and the urgent necessity for federal legislation to put it. Harlem will also know its united protest against lynching when business houses display banners, buntings and anti-lynching slogans on June 15th. A protest parade will form at 3 p.m., at 125th St. & Lenox Ave., proceed down Lenox Ave., to 110th St., over to 7th Ave., up 7th Ave. to 115th St. and over to Colonial Park where a free children's party will be held.

Listed speakers for the rally are Attorney E. R. L. Dickerson, President of the National Bar Association; Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, noted educator; Stedman Kennedy, author; Mrs. Louise Ayensu, Jewish leader; William H. Anderson, E.G.O. Executive Board Member, and Wambui Azikiwe, Nigerian legislator.

At the West Indian Conference held at the Abyssinian Baptist Church, New York City, on June 9, the theme of addresses by West Indian and African leaders was Unity for the West Indian Cause and a plea for progressive action in the interest of colored peoples everywhere. Dr. A. George Dally was chairman of the conference. Morgan W. Nisely representing the Jamaica Progressive Party asked that a number of preliminary conferences be held beginning immediately among various West Indian leaders for the purpose of presenting a united front to the British at the Imperial Conference called by the British Colonial Office Forces at Monetego Bay, Jamaica, P.W.I. Declaring that Jamaica's Destinies is in play into British hands, Mr. Nisely voiced the hope that sober and sane minds would prevail at the conference.
HICKS, leader of the Labor party, and who recently was instrumental in having changes made in the body of the Constitution, declared that the time now is right for a conference which, if not complete, will embrace more of the progressive forces.

Mr. NAMIBI ACHEKE, African leader, and the delegate from his support to the Confederation, was mentioned.

WALTER WHITE, Executive Secretary of the N.A.A., told a press conference in New York that he hoped the federal government would make "resistance to the terrorism now being directed against Negroes unnecessary," recalling that "terrorism has always met with resistance and that it was Nazi terrorism that met with resistance and caused the destruction of a nation." The N.A.A. executive set the stage for what predicts will be the most significant convention in its history. The organization holds its annual 5-day convention on June 29. Appearances at the convention will be PHILIP MURPHY, CIA chief; LEON FREEDMAN, former OPA Administrator; LAWRENCE MILLER, Los Angeles Attorney; M. F. SCOTT, organic chemist; and M. B. HARSEY, Nobel prize recipient. It was announced at the White House that President Truman would address the concluding session of the aforementioned 30th Annual Conference of the N.A.A. at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. Sunday afternoon, June 29th. Other speakers scheduled for the program include MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, SENATOR WAYNE MORSE and WALTER WHITE.
